CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Carlee Ellis Sr. was born April 15, 1935 to the late Andrew Ellis and Odester James in Round Pond, Arkansas, in St. Francis County. Carlee was a twin, he was the oldest of the twins and his younger brother is Arlee Ellis. Carlee Ellis Sr. and his late wife Dorothy Jean Ellis had eight children together. Many years later he remarried and had two more children and three blended children was added to his legacy.

Carlee wanted better for his family, so he moved from Arkansas to New York in 1962. He worked at Duffy Motts where he retired from in 2001. At Duffy Mott, Carlee held many positions but mostly he was a Fork lift driver.

Carlee was very handy. He also took care of his family by mowing lawns, repairing small engine machines and did minor car repairs. He also collected and recycled bottles. If there was a bottle to be recycled you better hold it tight or your drink would be gone.

Carlee was a member of His Way Ministries. He also was a part of a gospel choir that went into the Nursing homes and ministered to the patients with song. The group was called "Pop and the Popettes". Carlee really enjoyed going into the nursing homes and singing. He also loved boating and cars (Buicks to be exact) in his younger years.

Carlee will greatly be missed by many who loved him but we know he was loved best by God.

He was preceded in death by his wife Dorothy Jean Ellis, one son, Carlee Ellis Jr., one daughter Alice Marie Ellis, two sisters; Velma Hullum Tensley and Elnora Bailey, Mother, Odester (Willie) James, Father Andrew Ellis and special friend Dorothy Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memories his twin brother Arlee (Alice) Ellis of Georgia. Sisters: Nalla Lynch and Dorothy Hillman of Albion, NY; Faye Wiggins of North Carolina and Leatha DeFrance of Chicago, Illinois. He leaves to carry on his legacy his sons: Allen Ellis, Matthias (Michelle) Ellis and Andrew (Kimberly) Ellis all of Rochester, NY. Rawn Mitchell of Arizona, Darby (Lytonja) Ellis and LaShawn Ellis of Florida. Daughters: Ruby (Julius) Bryan and Gail Berkes of Rochester, NY; Novel Ellis of Georgia, Toshia Mitchell of Rochester, NY and Glenda Wise of Florida. A host of Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren, Nephews, Nieces, Cousins and Friends.
